

Winter/Spring 2007
A Day of Free Theatre Classes
Super Sampler Saturday
January 20, 2007 1-5PM

Come and sample some of our classes. For one day only, take an hour each of various theatre classes for no cost whatsoever. Experience the daring-do of stage combat, the amazing action of Shakespeare, the fun of Whose Line Is It Anyway?, the joy of singing and dancing – all in one place, all in one day. You will also have the opportunity to sign up for the full session of the class. This is for grades 6 through adult.

Acting Shakespeare, 1:00-2:00 – Instructor, Robert Beshere
Play with some of the most famous lines in the English language

Improvisation, 2:00-3:00 — Instructor, Mike Gilbert
Be the creative wackiness of doing scenes on the spot and see where it goes

Musical Theatre, 3:00-4:00 – Instructor, Heather Hamby
Put together a mini song and dance number

Stage Combat, 4:00-5:00 -- Instructor, Stephen D. Hyers
Swashbuckling fun! Learn the tricks of a good old fashioned swordfight.

Class Descriptions

Acting - Develop the skills needed to become an actor. Characterization, voice, movement, and various acting techniques will be covered.

Acting for the Camera (Special workshop) – Acting on camera is different than acting on stage. Learn how to act for the lens where smaller is bigger.

Acting Shakespeare Intensive (Special workshop) - Experience the best comedy sketches and dramatic scenes ever written! It's great preparation for Livestock Players' spring production of Taming of the Shrew.

Auditioning for Stage & Screen (Special workshop) – So, you want that part, right? Learn how to get the edge when it comes auditioning for plays, movies & TV.

Build A Scene - Students will put scenes together for performance, using improvisation, some scripts and lots of imagination and creativity,

Creative Dramatics - He or she already acts, pretending to be other characters. Channel that imagination into onstage skills. Playacting, story building, and acting are all part of the fun.

Improvisation - Develop and build scenes on the spur of the moment. Theatre games, character development, wordplay, and ensemble building are all included.

Let's Sing & Dance - Learn to sing and dance a Broadway number. This class will teach the vocal techniques and movement necessary to be in a musical.

Stage Combat - Pirates meet cowboys in this fun exploration of barroom brawls and swashbuckling swordfights.
